The Secretary to Government
Development Department,
Fort St. George, Madras.

Pdl. No.6/49--G1 dated 9th November 1949.

Sir,

Sub:- Public Services - Madras Co-operative Service - Deputy Registrars - Recruitment by transfer 1950.

Ref:- G.O. Ms. No. 5183 (Confidential), Development, dated 25-10-1949

The Government in their order cited above approved the names of 21 co-operative Sub-Registrars as suitable for appointment as Deputy Registrars. Six of these Co-operative Sub-Registrars have already been appointed as Deputy Registrars under emergency provisions and 15 more are available for appointment from the list. In estimating the vacancies that may arise in the course of 1950 I find that about 30 vacancies are likely to arise as shown below:

1. Officers retiring in 1950	... 4
2. Leave vacancies	...16
3. New schemes	...10
Total	...30

I therfore, consider that it will be desirable to make a selection of 15 Co-operative Sub-Registrars for appointment as Deputy Registrars in 1950. I shall send proposals to the Service Commission accordingly in due course.

Sd. J.C. Ayar,
Registrar.

Sir,

Sub: Public Services - Provincial Madras Coop.Service - Deputy Registrar Recruitment by transfer - Estimate of vacancies for 1950.

Ref: G.O.Ms. No.752 Pub(Ser) dated 24-3-48.

I am directed to state that there are fifteen more cooperative Sub-Registrars in the list approved in G.O.Ms. 5183 Development, dated 25-10-49 awaiting appointment as Deputy Registrars, against which 30 vacancies are likely to arise in the year 1950, on account of new schemes, grant of leave to Deputy Registrars, retirement etc. The additional number of officers required to fill up these vacancies is estimated to be fifteen. I am accordingly directed to request the Commission to be so good as to select 15 candidates for appointment as Deputy Registrars in the Madras Cooperative Service by transfer from the Madras Cooperative Subordiante Service during the period ending 1-2-1951. The Registrar is being separtely requiested to forward to the Commission direct, detailed proposals in order to enable it to make the selection.
